

Baptist Center News

Special note from Sheila.....

I cannot put into words how much it has meant to me to be able to serve at the Baptist Center for almost 15 years. I have experienced so many blessings over the years. None of which would have happened without your support and prayers. From the bottom of my heart, I deeply appreciate each of you.

Don't miss out on the Ladies Day Bible Study led by Nada McDonough. The next sessions begin on Thursday, March 5, 10:00 AM at the Center.

It will be Beth Moore's Beloved Disciple.

Thank you for your quick response to our need for food at the center. The shelves went from bare to overflowing! We do give out boxes year-round & appreciate all that you give us continually, as well.

God Bless You,
Sheila

Have you signed your children and youth up for summer camp at Schafer? Forms are available at the Baptist Building.

Nathan's Notions.....

As the weather starts to warm during March and April our minds begin to catch fire of all the things we want to do. We have Spring cleaning in the house that we must address, yard work that must take place, and a thousand other little things to do that we put off until it got warmer. I ask you to consider one more thing to do: make sure you commit your life to the Lord. Why? I'm so glad you asked!

When we commit our lives to the Lord we experience so many blessings; many of which appear in Psalm 119:1-24. We can live a life involving purity of heart that can bring so much peace as we practice integrity of heart (vv.1-2, 10, 20), and diligently seek to please the Lord (vv. 3-4, 17). We can experience the blessing of salvation from evil as we commit our lives to Lord; from the evils of sin (vv. 11, 22), shame (v. 6), and condemnation (v. 21).

We can experience the blessing of sacred joy (vv. 14, 24) as we live our lives for the Lord. The joy of staying steadfast in our walk with God (vv.5-9), the joy of an open mind for which God to fill with His presence (vv. 18-19), the joy of effort in kingdom work (v.16), the joy of time with God in prayer (vv. 15, 23), and the joy of learning and teaching (vv. 12-13).

Have you committed your life to the Lord? This Spring make sure that with all the other things you must do, you do not neglect this one thing: making the Lord Jesus Christ primary in all of your decisions and actions. Spend some time in prayer asking Him to reveal to you how you can fully commit your life to the Lord. Listen to what He tells you, and then act on it immediately. Rick Warren once said, "delayed obedience is disobedience." Let's do this together as an association and watch to see what God calls us to do and accomplish for His glory!

As of February 9th, I have had the privilege to attend twelve of our great churches in the Daviess-McLean Baptist Association; preaching at Maceo Baptist and Calhoun Baptist, attending the ordination service of David Hall at Hopewell Baptist Church, and speaking at missions night at Eaton Memorial Baptist. I intend to visit every church every year, and to serve in any way I can to help churches heal, grow, and thrive in kingdom work. Please let me know how I can assist you, and I will do my very best to help.

Dr. Nathan A. Whisnant
